

ArcelorMittal 'meets licence obligations'

EMISSIONS | ArcelorMittal gained 1% to R30.28 yesterday after saying that the Gauteng department of agriculture and rural development was satisfied that the Vanderbijlpark works fully complied with air emission licence obligations. The department had ordered ArcelorMittal to cease operations at certain units of the plant in October. Staff Writer