

ArcelorMittal board appoints interim CEO

STEEL manufacturer ArcelorMittal SA has appointed an interim CEO after the resignation of Nonkululeko Nyembezi-Heita last year. "The board is pleased to announce Dr Hans Ludwig Rosenstock has been appointed as acting CEO and executive director while the board embarks on a search for a permanent CEO," the company said in a statement yesterday. Rosenstock's appointment will be effective from February 19. – Sapa
