

ArcelorMittal rejects venture sale

MINING | ArcelorMittal said it would not sell its stake in the Kalagadi Manganese venture to its partner, Kalahari Resources, amid a dispute between the companies. “ArcelorMittal is committed to the project,” said a spokesman for ArcelorMittal yesterday. Kalahari wants to buy ArcelorMittal’s 50% in the project, said Kalagadi chairwoman Daphne Mashile-Nkosi. Bloomberg
