

EXECUTIVE MOVES

Nku Nyembezi-Heita has joined the board of Old Mutual as an independent nonexecutive director. Nyembezi-Heita is the CEO of ArcelorMittal SA and has been an independent nonexecutive director of Old Mutual Life Assurance Company.

Kuseni Dlamini has been appointed as an independent nonexecutive director of Aspen Pharmacare. Dlamini was the CEO of Old Mutual SA and executive chairman of Richards Bay Coal Terminal Company.

Leonard Brehm has been appointed an independent nonexecutive director and a member of the audit committee of Arrowhead Properties. Brehm was the national chairman of Grant Thornton SA until February.

Sebastian Patel joins the board of Taste Holdings as a nonexecutive director. Patel is the shareholder representative of Brimstone Investment. He is the managing executive at Brimstone.

Prof Brian de Lacy Figaji will be retiring as an independent nonexecutive director of Nedbank Group and Nedbank Ltd at Nedbank's annual general meeting.

Nick Thomson has been appointed financial director of Afrox with effect from April. Thomson is a chartered accountant and previously worked at Transnet as the chief financial officer.

Sydney Mhlarhi has been appointed as a nonexecutive director of PPC as a representative of the PPC consortium of strategic black partners and as a member of the deal and remuneration committees. Mhlarhi is a founder and director of Tamela Holdings.

Debbie Zwane-Chikura has resigned as chief operating officer and executive director of Gijima to pursue other interests.

Len van Niekerk has resigned as nonexecutive director of Oryx with the sale of the SA Corporate Real Estate Fund stake in Oryx.

Amanda Alback has resigned as independent nonexecutive director of Adcorp.

Liesel Kemp has been appointed acting executive financial director of Top Fix. Kemp has been group financial manager of Top Fix since 2009.

Sandile Swana has joined SA French Ltd as an independent nonexecutive director.