

ICT, department to appeal ruling

MINING | Imperial Crown Trading and the Department of Mineral Rights have lodged applications for leave to appeal to the Constitutional Court against a Supreme Court of Appeal decision. The court held that Sishen Iron Ore was the sole holder of the mining right for the Sishen Mine, after ArcelorMittal SA failed to convert its old order mining right. Staff Writer