

Kumba Sishen unit declares force majeure

JOHANNESBURG: Sishen Iron Ore, a unit of Kumba Iron Ore, has declared force majeure on its deliveries in South Africa following illegal strike action, ArcelorMittal South Africa said yesterday. ArcelorMittal, which relies on Sishen for supplies of the steel-making ingredient, said its Saldanha plant would be negatively affected if the supply stoppage continues for more than one and a half weeks. – Reuters
