

O'Flaherty takes the helm at Mittal

FORMER Eskom financial director and group executive Paul O'Flaherty (pictured) was yesterday appointed the CEO of steel maker Arcelor-Mittal SA, reuniting with his former boss Mpho Makwana.

The ArcelorMittal SA chairman, Mr Makwana, said Mr O'Flaherty was expected to restore profitability and improve business performance. Further, he was expected to drive broad-based black economic empowerment.

This material has been copied under a DALRO licence and is not for resale or retransmission.