

STEEL IT BACK!

■ THE recent fire at ArcelorMittal has brought a number of businesses that rely on steel products to their knees.

Businessmen are now scrambling to import steel products on the international market, often at higher prices, which will now have a knock-on effect on the economy.

Renationalisation and having absolute control over such an important resource is urgently needed.

PETER BACHTIS

By e-mail